Volume 32

1967

Preface

The "ever changing generation" has become apparent this year at MSHS in many ways. We, the HURRICANE staff of 1967, have chosen the theme "Come Alive" which pictures the "swingers" of MSHS in action during the school year. We hope that when you look back over your yearbook in years to come, you will remember '67 as the year that "Came Alive".

Handwritten note:
 Hey, I've been trying to get you
 on and study ball.
 I'm a real sweet girl. Hope to see you next year.

We Honor

Stopping from our lively course of action, we the HURRICANE staff, pause to honor Mr. Jack Cox. Mr. Cox has given of his time assisting with the various activities, curricular and extracurricular, at MSHS. His witty personality and easy going ability to get along with the students has brightened the lives of the students who have come in contact with him.

The County Administrators Who Work For Us

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS: Sitting: Walter Murray, E. D. Duncan, Charles H. Webb, and Rhea Lawrence. Standing: Robert Ashury, N. O. Williams, Charles R. Scott, K. B. Snider, and Marvin Perry.

The Board of Supervisors has been increased over the number last year due to the redistricting of Smyth County. Smyth County is now divided into 7 new districts with members presently over them. They are as follows: Royal Oak-K. B. Snider; Atkins-Rhea Lawrence; Park-Walter Murray; Chilhowie-E. D. Duncan; Rye Valley-Charles R. Scott; North Fork-Charles H. Webb; Saltville-N. O. Williams.

The Smyth County School Board administers the schools of Smyth County. The Executive Staff is hired to carry out the administrative orders of the School Board. They attend meetings and conventions, visit schools, and confer with teachers and principals in trying to give to the County the best educational system which is possible.

SCHOOL BOARD AND EXECUTIVE STAFF OF SMYTH COUNTY: Sitting: Robert A. Hunter, Member; J. Leonard Mauck, Superintendent of Schools; Francis J. Copenhaver, Chairman of School Board; William Kelley, Member; Cecil Greer, Member; Earl Horne, Member. Standing: I. Laton Choate, Member; Harlan S. Pafford, High School Supervisor; Mrs. Joyce Cornett, Clerk of Board; Mrs. Brenda C. Brooks, Secretary; Mrs. Helen H. Rosenbaum, Secretary; Miss Carolyn Sheffey, Visiting Member; E. R. Thompson, Director of Instruction; William P. Buchanan, Member. Not pictured, Mrs. Virginia T. Stone, Elementary Supervisor.

ACADEMICS

"Where the Action Is"

Best of luck to the finest specimen of a girl that I know.
It's been a pleasure
having class with you.
We've had some fun.
Lots of love.
Jim Ward

Classes where the "seekers" gather to hear the word put on them, from Caesar and the Latin scholars to $1 + 1 = 1$, are called the "Action" Classes.

A Decade of Service

Howard Williams.

Since 1957 Mr. Howard W. Williams has ably led MSHS to new heights as an educational institution. The past decade under his leadership has seen Marion's High School move into a new building, establish a well-balanced senior high curriculum, and make almost unprecedented gains in its total educational program. In his constant struggle to improve our school, Mr. Williams is an administrator, a disciplinarian, and an advisor and friend to the students. In addition, his duties take him out of school as he attends civic meetings and seminars and constantly strives to promote better relationships between our school and our community.

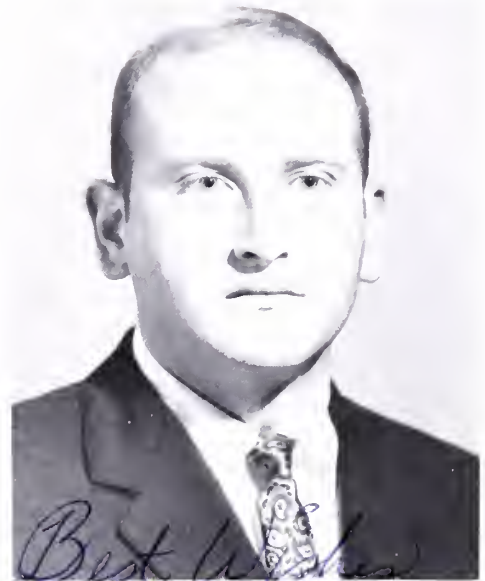

Our principal displays his fine sense of humor.

Mr. Williams cheers our team on to victory.

Facing New Experiences

Mr. David Henry is the new Assistant Principal of the "swinging generation" at MSHS. Mr. Henry is primarily concerned with attendance and discipline, as he excuses absences, keeps Detention Hall, sets up discipline committees, and coordinates our familiar discipline slip procedure. His other responsibilities include the following: lunchroom supervision, making out monthly and yearly reports for the school board, and making plans for over-all activities and pre-registration for the coming year. In addition, Mr. Henry assumes the position of principal in Mr. Williams' absence.

David Henry.

Best wishes
Rayton David Henry

The busy administrative staff concern themselves with a wide variety of duties in their efforts to assist the students. From co-ordinating schedules to planning assembly programs, from counseling to publishing the daily bulletin, the staff always make time for the individual.

Mr. Henry discusses student problems.

Katherine M. Williams.

Nancy D. Holman.

Counseling the "Swingers"

Fred McDonald.

Mr. Fred McDonald, previously Assistant Principal, is now in his first year as Head Guidance Counselor at MSHS. He and the four head sponsors of each class aid the students in deciding on future courses of action. The Guidance Department's aims are to help each student make his high school career a pleasant, profitable, and useful one, and to develop his abilities to the highest possible degree to insure success in his future endeavors.

Information concerning vocational, educational, and personal opportunities are available to every student in the department's extensive files of books, pamphlets, and audio-visual materials, and through special guidance programs.

Mr. Mac moves on.

Mr. Mac advises students on college board scores.

The guidance staff counts ballots for the D.A.R. award.

Seeking Knowledge

Through the assistance of students, Miss Trula Fleenor is able to run an efficient library by making information and materials readily available to students and faculty.

Each year additional books and equipment are added. This year a new set of Collier's Encyclopedias was added.

Trula Fleenor.

Sherry Romans and Joanne Shupe look for a book in the card catalogue.

Students use their time wisely in study hall.

Language

Roger Callis.

Eloise M. Courtney.

All the English classes study literature and grammar, with time devoted to developing writing and public speaking skills. Outside reading is represented by monthly book reviews and in research for term papers. With the aid of new equipment—record players and an opaque projector—the teachers are able to supplement their teaching with greater appreciation.

Sue Medley.

Karen Ostdahl.

Mrs. Wilson points out the difference between Puritan and Cavalier England.

Betty G. Wilson.

Marvin Winters.

The ninth grade English class re-enacts a scene from David Copperfield.

Arts

Mr. Henry watches as the students listen to Spanish recordings.

A Spanish III class was added to the curriculum this year under the supervision of Mr. Henry. The Spanish classes supplement their regular textbook by the reading of Spanish magazines called El Sol and Hoy Dia. The Latin II students are studying Roman and Greek writers and the development of the Roman and Greek theaters. Interesting filmstrips about the development of the Latin language aid the grammatical study. Both Latin and Spanish clubs meet during class on appointed days.

Fred Herndon.

Vickie Wilson.

Mr. Herndon instructs his students on a play.

Miss Wilson checks Spanish translations of sentences.

Mrs. Linkous advises students as they work on a variety of assignments.

The Art classes are set up on three-year levels. As a student progresses from year to year, he learns more difficult techniques. The students find a way of expressing their creative ability and originality. They also enter in state and local competition. The students have worked with ceramics and paper maché this year as new areas of interest.

Nile D. Linkous.

These are the prize winning art displays in the Junior Woman's Club Art Show.

Barbara Hash and Mrs. Linkous discuss an oil painting.

Arts

Linda C. Crowder.

Mrs. Crowder explains the musical scale.

Judy Blackburn.

The Music Appreciation class studies the lives of many composers, different styles of writing, history of music, and the different periods of music. Recordings of compositions have supplemented the class' studies.

Speech and Dramatics is available this year. The class offers a chance to develop a good speaking voice, poise, and self-confidence. The students also learn how to apply make-up for the stage.

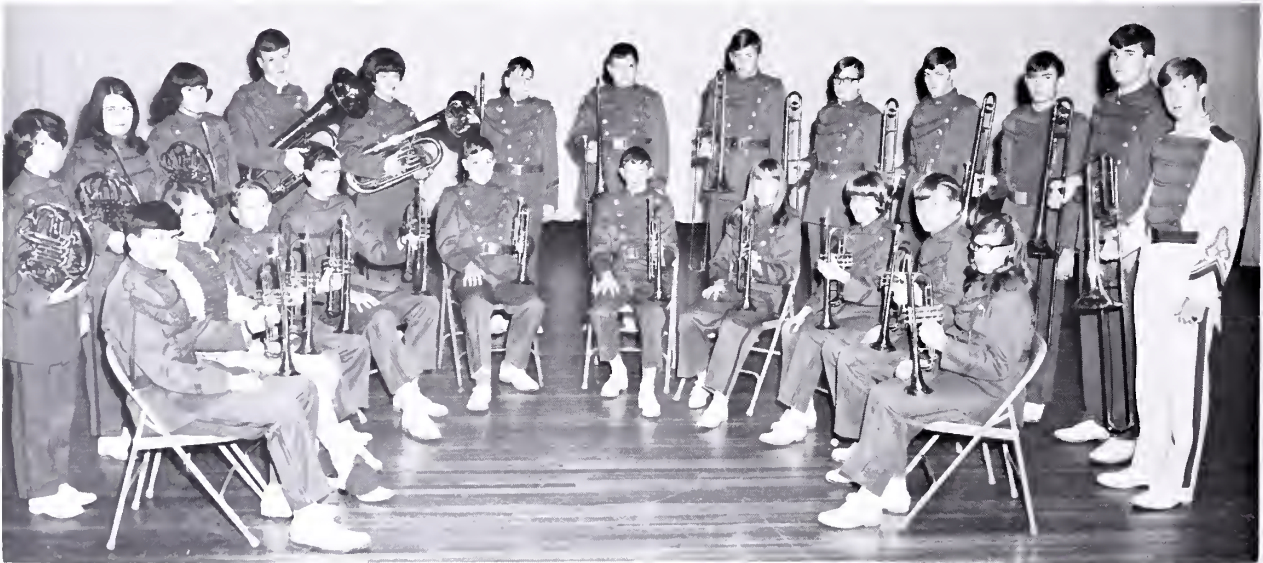

The Speech and Dramatics class learns the technique of applying make-up for the stage.

Hurricane Rebel

Roy Evans

The Hurricane Rebel Band consists of eighty-four members under the direction of Mr. Roy Evans. The band is composed of three main sections, brass, woodwinds, and percussion. A number of students represent our school in the All-State Band.

During football season the band presents half-time entertainment with precision drills and marching exhibitions. The twirling of fire by the majorettes adds to the attraction. The dance band is often invited to perform in the surrounding area. The District Music Festival and a trip to Myrtle Beach for the Sun Fun Festival highlight the year for the band members.

MAJORETTES: Sharon Hutton, Anne Lynn Harkins, Brenda Burkett, Mary Obregon, Amy Coffey, Sharon Snider.

Chorus

First Row: Shirley Rouse, Freida Elledge, Linda Fletcher, Glenda Glass, Mary Kegley, Terry Blevins, Susan Campbell, Mrs. Crowder. Second Row: Brenda Shupe, Sue Atwell, Lila Barker, Zana Hall, Stephanie Sharpe, Karen Stoots, Linda Widener. Third Row: Betty Blizzard, Elizabeth Davidson, Linda DeFriece, Sharon Cox, Andrea LaFollette, Jane Umbarger, Judy Russell, Brenda Blevins. Fourth Row: Douglas Delp, Russell Lowe, Mark Hogan, Larry Hogan, Billy Tilson, Barry Spitzer, Johnny Broady.

This year the choral class consists of twenty-nine members. Marion is host to the All-Regional Chorus in which eight students from our school participate. The class presents a program of music to the school at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. The members buy a variety of new music from the funds which they collect by selling football programs.

Mrs. Crowder directs the Chorus.

Mathematical

Sally H. Werth.

Jane Compton.

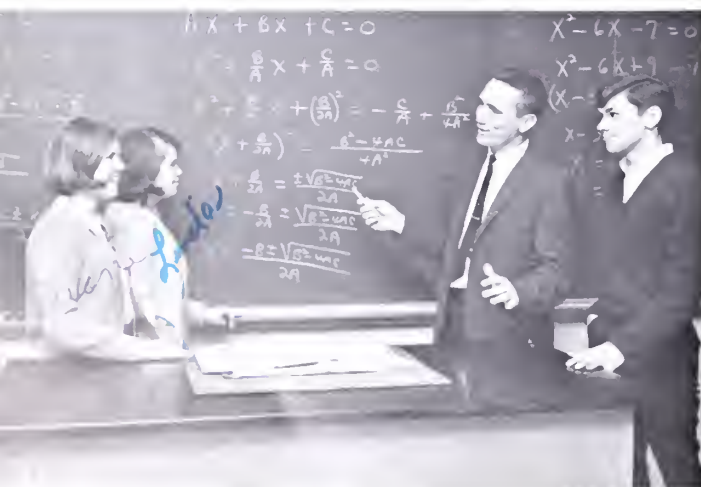

William Earp.

Mrs. Werth's Geometry students demonstrate the difference between rigidity of triangles and other polygons.

All the Academic Math courses concentrate on the ability of the students to use his reasoning processes. Algebra I gives each student an understanding of the basic functions and structures of Algebra. Geometry includes the study of plane and solid figures. Algebra II is based on the theories and principles learned in Algebra I. Trigonometry gives the students a more detailed understanding of the basic concepts and skills of the subject. Math 12 includes a review of elementary number theory, trigonometry, and a deeper understanding reached through a research paper.

Mr. Earp explains an Algebra II problem.

Algebra I students listen to Miss Compton as she explains problems.

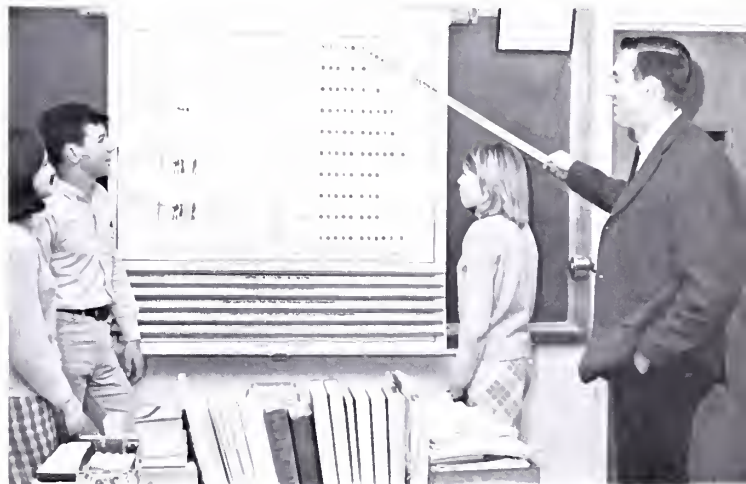

Courses

Mrs. Overbey's Bookkeeping class work on their practice sets.

The record keeping classes study and solve problems in banking, petty cash, budgets, sales clerking, purchasing, and payroll. Bookkeeping offers the basic procedures to be applied in keeping records systematically and accurately. Good penmanship and neatness are emphasized. Business Math students develop the principles and operations needed later through a study of problems faced by every individual in his daily life. Refresher Math is taken by students who need more knowledge in the fundamentals of mathematics and in everyday applications.

The Refresher Math class studies the circumference of a circle.

Mr. Callis points out the national debt to the General Business students.

Science

Jack Cox

John Fisher

Marlene S. Winters.

Jane H. Waters.

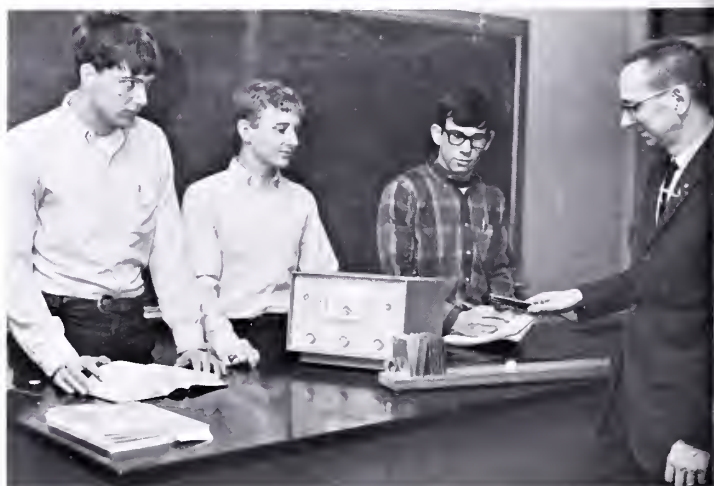

Biology students study the dissection of a frog.

In Biology the students study the anatomy and physiology of animals ranging from one-celled protozoans to the many-celled human. Chemistry is the science dealing with the study of the composition of materials, their structure, chemical and physical properties and uses. Physics is the study of matter, energy and the transformation of energy. These courses consist mainly of lectures and reading supplemented by laboratory work. Advanced Chemistry and Advanced Biology are also offered this year.

Mr. Cox assists the students in performing an experiment.

The Physics students look on as Mr. Fisher demonstrates the geiger-counter.

Social Studies

Alvin Crowder.

Louis Dabney.

Lillie P. Echols.

Marvin Leslie.

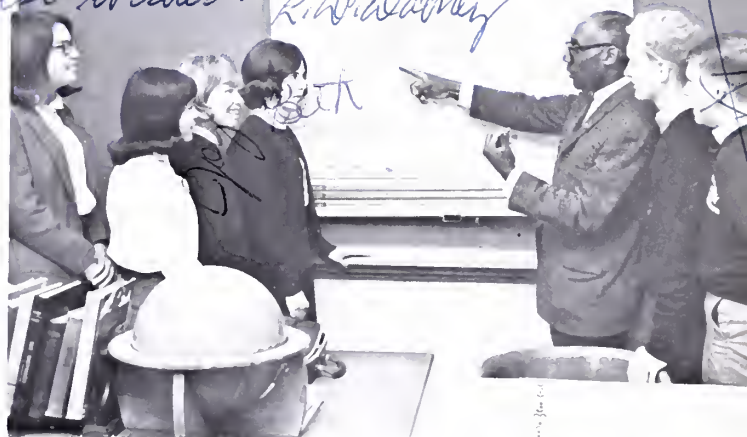

Charles Harkins.

Class discussions, lectures, term papers, book reports and current affairs help the student in social studies to understand the present by studying the past, and to become better citizens, through the study of our local, state, and federal governments. The courses included are World History, World Geography, U.S. and Virginia History, Economics, and Government.

Handwritten note: "Please it has been a real pleasure working with you in history. Keep up the good work you have been doing. Best wishes. R.D. Dabney"

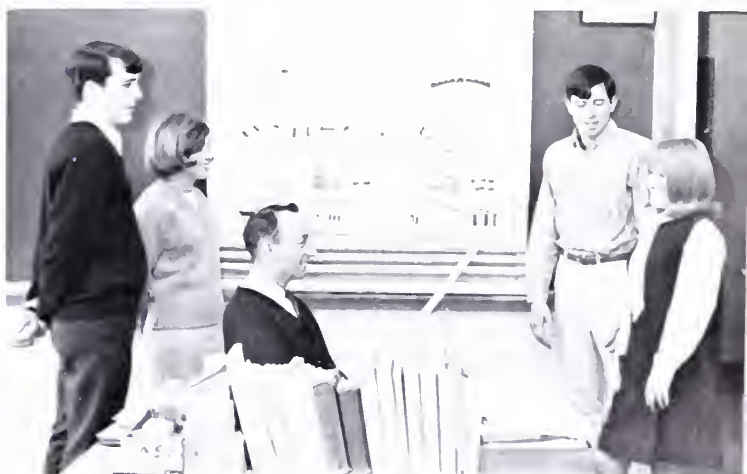

U.S. and Va. History students hold a panel discussion.

Mr. Dabney explains the reformation to the World History students.

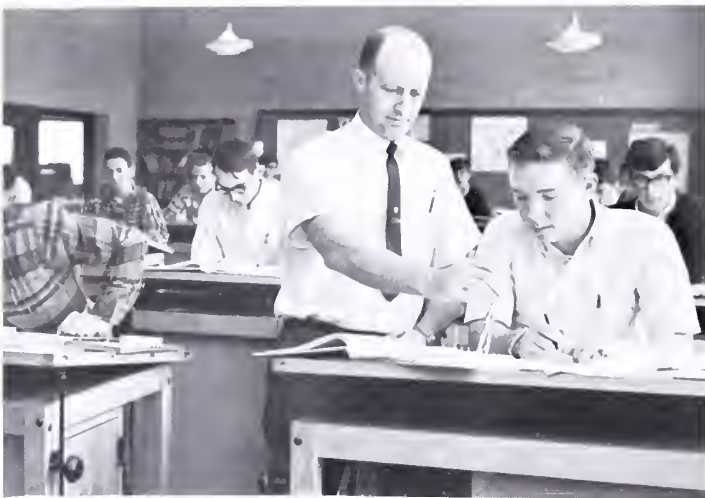

Mr. Crowder lectures to the Economics class.

Mr. Harkins' government class studies the organization of the national government.

Vocational

Mr. Vicars shows Charles Wymer how to use his drawing tools.

General Shop students learn to use manual and power tools. Students work on special projects to enter in a fair in May. The Power Mechanics class learns how the automobile operates with the aid of new equipment. The Mechanical Drawing class learns how to use draftsmen's tools. Agricultural students study farming, agricultural business, and methods of producing crops and livestock.

Sterling Robinson, Jr.

Lloyd Vicars, Jr.

D. B. Waddle.

The power mechanics class study the automobile.

Mr. Robinson is puzzled by his agriculture students.

Courses

Home Economics is set up as a three-year course. It is offered to girls who desire a knowledge of homemaking and family living. It includes not only food preparation and clothing construction, but also child care, home nursing, looking towards marriage and home furnishing.

Distributive Education correlates classroom instruction and work experience. They study artistic displays of goods, how to meet the public, and how to succeed in the business world.

Laura Meinhold.

The Home Economics boys learn how to cook.

Miss Meinhold aids students working on the Lennox China Contest.

Judy Blevins answers a question in the Distributive Education class.

Roger Wall.

Business

Typing I teaches the basic techniques for personal and office style typing. The minimum speed requirements for Typing II is 50 words per minute. Two years of shorthand prepare the student for stenographic positions. Students learn how to make mailable transcripts during second year. In Office Practice modern facilities enable the students to become acquainted with conditions which will be found in a business office.

Miss Wolfenden watches as Linda Cress takes dictation.

Typing students take a timed writing.

Office Practice students learn to operate various machines.

Physical Education

Boys strengthen their muscles by weight lifting.

Physical Education boys demonstrate wrestling positions.

Marlin Weaver.

Students are required to take Physical Education through the tenth grade. The boys participate in the following sports each year: touch football, speed ball, trampolining, volleyball, tumbling, handball, wrestling, weight lifting, archery, softball, track and golf. The girls' activities include: archery, tennis, badminton, volleyball, tumbling, shuffle board, handball, and softball. Twice during the school year physical fitness tests are given to show the progress of each student. In Physical Education the students also learn about mental health and driver's education.

EXTRA EFFORT TO COME ALIVE

Ursula M. Bass.

Mildred A. French.

Special Reading Classes

Many of the students are able to read at a faster rate with more comprehension through the aid of new reading equipment. Although most of the improvement is up to the individual, these students are under the direction of Mrs. Bass and Mrs. French.

Students learn to read more rapidly through the use of accelerators.

A special machine is also used to help increase speed.

Mrs. Currin gives special instruction to a number of students in U. S. and Virginia History and other subjects.

THEY KEEP US ALIVE

Mrs. Clawson and her staff provide wholesome meals, which are enjoyed in the pleasant and friendly atmosphere of the cafeteria. The custodians are constantly working to keep our building and grounds neat, and are subject to call for the various tasks and events which take place around our school.

Doris W. Clawson.

Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Pugh, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Adams, and Mrs. Hart prepare and serve the meals.

The ladies prepare meals.

Jerry and Kenneth display their dishwashing skills.

Swinging '67—The year Marion Senior High School "came alive" with 190 Seniors "leading the pack" with added privileges. The Senior Generation no longer had to "snitch" places in lunch line, for now we merely had to "run" in front of all. Also, the Senior girlies received a lounge of their own. The "hard won" position of being at front in assembly was grabbed by the Seniors as a privilege. September 3 brought our "roaring" football team into action opening its season against the Warriors from Chilhowie.

October 13 brought the long awaited class rings, and the displaying of them with pride to the lower classmen before the Variety Show. Thursday, the kick-off of the Homecoming week-end, was the night of the Variety Show. "Red-Eye Roundup", the theme, brought the "hot" talent of MSHS out into the open with the Seniors "Blowing In the Wind." The Hurricanes met the Golden Wave of Grundy the following night in a hard fought contest, losing by one point. Mary Porter, Vickie Casas, Dianne Blevins, and Carol Bates attended Patsy Moore who was crowned Queen at halftime. The dance, held on Saturday night, was a "real blast."

Christmas festivities were "making the scene" around town and "The Twelve Days of Christmas" put all in the mood for a joyous Christmas season. King Mike Barker and Queen Nancy Matthews reigned over the "bunch" of students who attended the dance. But the New Year brought us back to face the most challenging of days—EXAMS, which were held on January 17, 18, and 23.

February brought the thoughts of valentines and lovers and also the dance. "With a Song in My Heart" was the theme of the lovely dance while Joe Foster and Sandy Romans became Cupid's Couple for the evening.

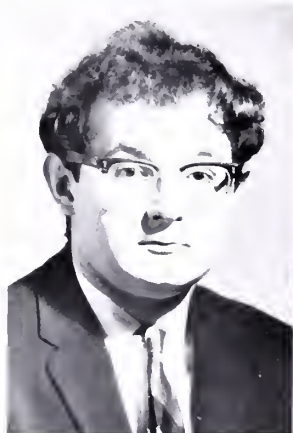

A month later "FEVER"—Spring Fever—seized the school, but some got out into the open by participating in the spring sports.

On April 7, the acting "clowns" gave the class play, "Junior Miss". Back one year one sees that a Junior Class play was held, "Butter on the Bacon" in which some "clowns" also gave a fine performance. April 29 brought the prom by the lowly Juniors. Only one year ago we presented a prom to the "long gone" Seniors, "In the Misty Moonlight". On May 15 we left Marion to invade Eastern Virginia and Washington, D. C., on our "way out trip". Returning—tired but happy—we began buckling down for the final lap. June filled us with solemn pride that we had finally completed a 12 year task. As we leave these hallowed halls of MSHS and become the "Graduating Generation", we have high hopes and a deep sense of thanks to our friends and teachers who have helped us in our accomplishment.

STUDENT

“Hurricane A-Go-Go”

The student at Marion Senior High School can become a member of the varied activities that it holds through such things as joining a club, or “making the scene” at a dance, or acting in a play, or becoming a queen, or other varied events. This adds up to “Hurricane A-Go-Go” where the “action is found” by the generation at MSHS.

STUDENT COOPERATIVE

Mr. President

Ron Haulsee

Under the leadership of Ron Haulsee, this year's SCA strove to make Marion Senior High a better school. The SCA Council has promoted better participation in school activities and has tried to make each student a part of the SCA. Ron has worked diligently in promoting the idea of sponsoring a Peace Corps school in some European country, bearing the name of Marion Senior High School.

Ron co-narrates the Stage-O-Rama with Wally Sale.

Leader of the Band

ASSOCIATION LEADS Executive Council

President, Ron Haulsee; Vice-President, Diane Blevins; Secretary, Cynthia Atkins; Treasurer, Lou Thompson; Reporter, Mary Porter; Sponsor, Mrs. Jane Waters. Not pictured, Chaplain, Penny Dixon.

Through the theme, DARE TO ACT NOW, the Student Cooperative Association has challenged the students of Marion Senior High School to be better citizens, good friends, and to dare to be themselves in everyday living. This theme has been carried out through the work of numerous committees. Some of the objectives were to improve communications, encourage honesty, enforce care of school property, and promote the general welfare of our school.

Meet the leaders for the months of November and December.

COMMITTEES IN ACTION

"Come on Carol, get with it," coaxed Virginia Forrest, Beauty Pageant Chairman.

Rally around the flag pole.

Pat Jolicoeur goes over the plan of awarding Scholastic Letters with Carolyn Seabolt and Mrs. Waters.

Miss Marion Senior High School

A large crowd came out to see forty-four of the prettiest girls of MSHS and made the SCA's only money-raising project a great success. Lots of work and preparation was done by the action kids for this event which took place September 10, 1966, to mark the fourth annual contest at Marion Senior High School.

An intensified moment for Queen Carol.

Variety Show

I've got a rotten hand!

Books were put aside Thursday, October 13, 1966, as students and alumni reunited for three unforgettable days. With the lively theme "Red Eye Round Up", the Variety Show was filled with action and later real fire at the bonfire kindled all sparks of inspiration for the weekend. Friday's pep rally and the exciting parade led the fans to watch the close game.

Would you believe - This is our Editor???

Sorry 'bout your dog's ears.

Rally round the bonfire.

We had our problems that night.

HOMECOMING FOLLIES

Homecoming Dance and Festivities

Claudine Blevins crowns new Queen Patsy Moore.

Dianne Blevins, Mary Porter, Queen Patsy Moore, Vickie Casas, and Carol Bates.

Five well-polished cars announced the main half-time activity for they carried the court and Queen Patsy Moore who received her title at half-time. The "kids" were still full of life for the dance Saturday night and really moved to the music of the G.T.'s.

The G.T.'s kept the crowd moving.

The swingers on the go.

Stage-O-Rama

Action was the key to this year's unforgettable Stage-O-Rama as time, talent, and money were given freely on March 20 to make the SCA's Charity Drive a big smash. Over one thousand dollars was scraped up as active students and faculty members sweated out their acts on the stage.

Collecting money kept the SCA Representatives busy.

Originality added life to the show.

"Old McDonald had a farm!"

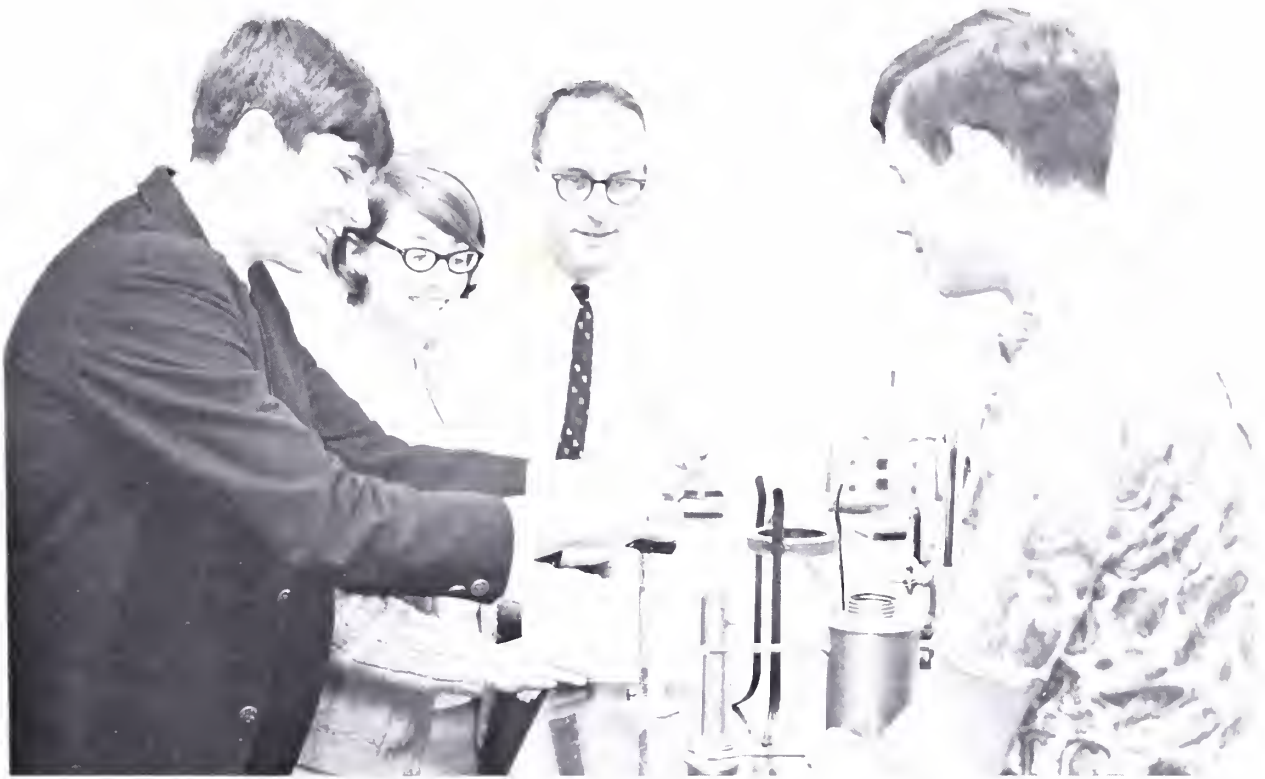

Accepting the challenge full heartily, Fred Herndon sang.

"In the Early Morning Rain..."

Science

Edwin Ford, President; Mary Obregon, Vice President; Mr. Cox, Sponsor; Odell Sexton, Secretary.

The Science Club is an organization that promotes the interest of science in the fields of chemistry, biology, and physics. The main project for the club is the sponsoring of the MSHS Science Fair, which was held on March 9. The winners go to the county fair and then may go to the regional fair and, if they are lucky enough, they may go to the National Science Fair. This year's winners from the County Fair were Ron Haulsee, Roger Pedigo, Linda Hull, Debbie Martin, Geraldine Buchanan, and Brenda Firestone. They attended the Regional Fair on April 8.

Mr. Cox surveys Linda Fuller's project.

Junior members are installed.

The Beta Club is an organization which recognizes scholarship, character, and leadership of the students of MSHS. The money making project for the club is the selling of candy. With this money, the club finances the Scholastic Letters and scholarships.

This year the probation system, whereas the student must maintain the average at which he entered the club, was put into effect.

Joyce Suit, Jean Shepherd, Janet Powell, Bill Cregger, and Sara Hutchinson were top candy salesmen.

Future Teachers of America

The FTA is a newly organized club at MSHS. The members are students who plan to teach upon graduation from college. The main projects of the club were the book drive, getting books to give to the libraries in surrounding elementary schools, and the book store, where all kinds of paper back books could be purchased by the student body.

Eddie Houck and Meg Byrd sell books for the FTA.

Books were collected for the book drive.

Debate

*First Row: Carleen Slep, Vice-President; Cathy Patrick, President.
Second Row: Miss Medley, Sponsor; Jimmy Alexander, Reporter; Debbie Martin, Secretary -Treasurer.*

"High enough, Master?"

Hada gets her point across.

The Debate Club is another newly formed organization at MSHS. The members were active in debates on various topics and events in the world today, such as the Vietnam War.

The main money-making project this year was the slave auction, which brought approximately seventy-five dollars into the club treasury.

Waiting to be auctioned off.

Forensic

First Row: Carleen Slem, Vice-President; Freida Elledge, Secretary-Treasurer; Donna McFarlane, Reporter. 2nd Row: Miss Blackburn, Sponsor; Susan Campbell, President; Miss Medley, Sponsor.

The Forensic Club stimulates interest in the various forms of literary work, such as public speaking and dramatics. These interests are brought out in the local, county, district, and state forensic meets.

The following were winners in the Forensic Meet:

First Place Poetry Reading	Billy Burnside
First Place Girls Public Speaking	Mary Rowland
First Place Boys Prose Reading	Charles Harrington
Third Place Boys Public Speaking	Jim Owens
Third Place Girls Prose Reading	Mary Whitmore
Third Place Spelling Contest	Shirley Neitch

The Jr. Y Clubs consist of Freshmen and Sophomore students who attempt to promote Christian standards. The girls' money-making project was a spaghetti dinner, and their service project was a Christmas party for underprivileged children. Both clubs join the two Senior clubs in sponsoring the Christmas Dance.

The two clubs presented Dr. Stokes, from Emory, as speaker for the Easter Assembly.

Christmas Dance

Holiday activities were brightened on December 17 as many happy couples enjoyed the Christmas Dance. The sponsors of the dance, the Y-Clubs, carried out the theme, "The Twelve Days of Christmas," with an enormous Christmas tree and designs.

April 29 was the deadline for the junior workers who had been on the go and were ready to give the Seniors of 1967 a "gala" time. Black, gold, and red were the outstanding colors in this varied oriental decoration scheme which did honors to the theme, "Shangri-La". Pictures were made on the bridge which withstood the vibrations created by Little Caesar and the Utopians. Originality was found in every corner of the cafeteria; in fact, an oriental artist helped out, and the favors from Formosa were a big surprise to all.

The Scarlet Hurricane opened the 1966 football season with its biggest and youngest team in quite a while. However, the team lacked a vital necessity needed in all of the football games—experience. Only 10 lettermen returned to form the nucleus of this year's team.

It was an exciting season and every play provided thrills for the Marion fans. It was also the year of the "breaks" and Marion got a precious few.

In the season opener, against Chilhowie Warriors, the Hurricane scored quickly in the first half on a touchdown by Duane Hayes and held a 7-0 lead at halftime. However, the second half proved different. The Marion offense could not get untracked and Chilhowie capitalized on the Hurricane errors for a 26-7 victory.

Against Abingdon, Marion got a good "break" when an Abingdon PAT was missed and squeaked by the Falcons for a 14-13 victory.

In the next five games, the Scarlet Hurricane played inspired football but they always seemed to be on the losing end of the scoreboard. Marion battled district-winning Graham to the wire before losing in the last quarter 19-13. Against unbeaten Richlands, the Hurricane trailed 8-7 at the end of three quarters only to fall before a fourth quarter barrage by the Blue Tornado. Bristol recovered a bizarre fumble for a touchdown when Marion was ahead 13-7 to go on and spoil a Marion victory.

Would you believe, a little short?

Marion Quarterbacks plot future strategy.

In the Homecoming game, the Scarlet Hurricane bowed to Grundy by a single point. Two missed PAT's by Marion provided the margin of victory for the Golden Wave.

In the final games, the Marion offense started to really move. The Hurricane trounced Patrick Henry, 40-6, and came from behind to defeat John Battle, 28-14. In the final game, Marion jumped off to a quick 14-0 lead over unbeaten Saltville. This looked like the "game of the year" for the Marion team, but once again fate was against the Hurricanes and Saltville went on to win 20-14.

This year's team was sparked by the playing of Seniors Duane Hayes, Richard Hutton, Jerry Barr, Ron Testerman, Elmer Farmer, Mike Shankman, and Mike Barker. Other top players that will return next year include David Archer, Martin Lee, Tommy and Chappy Thomas, and Dewey Snavely.

Although Marion finished the '66 season with a 3-6-1 record, it might have been 7-3, 8-2, or 9-1 with a few "breaks."

This past year's JV Football team enjoyed a fine season with seven wins and two losses. The two games that they lost were by close margins. This was a basically young team and it should have a winning season next year. The team itself consisted mainly of freshmen players and featured several good running backs such as Frank Willard, Charlie Kirby, Billy Murphy, Mike Olinger, and Greg Harvey. In addition, many JV players will have a chance to help the varsity next season.

Hurricane coaches.

The Marion Senior High School Basketball team started its season with only three lettermen, a lot of height, and a lack of experience. The Hurricane started slowly by losing their first four games, but they suddenly jelled over the Christmas holidays and won their next five in a row. The much-improved Hurricane team then proceeded to play 11-5 basketball for the rest of the season to end up with a 11-9 record for the regular season. They finished second in the district with a 7-4 record after finishing fourth in the '65-'66 season.

This was a very interesting season for the Marion team despite the lack of experience and every game provided excitement and thrills for the Marion fans. In addition, prospects look bright for next year's team with several returning lettermen and a much needed element, height, available for the first time in many years.

Richard Hutton, Captain.

The JV basketball team opened its season with a new coach and a freshmen loaded team. The boys worked hard and displayed a lot of spirit despite ending up two games under .500 with a 8-10 season record. The final record was deceiving, however, since three games were lost by one point, and another by only two points, but each game was close and they provided seat-gripping excitement for the Marion fans.

Next year's team should be a good one for Coach Crowder, since several of this past year's team will return. Every boy showed fine potential and they should help the varsity in future years.

The Marion High School wrestling team posted its best season, ever, since wrestling was started at MSHS, in 1963. This year's team rolled to an unbeaten 13-0 regular season mark. The Hurricane wrestlers not only won the district title but they also won the Southwestern-Western Regional title in Danville by a decisive margin.

Marion swept through the regular season handily including two victories over arch-rival Tazewell. Four Marion wrestlers also went undefeated through the regular season. They were Alvin Jones, Mal Brown, Jerry Lovett, and Dewey Snively. Nine wrestlers won in the regional tournament and earned the right to participate in the state tournament. In the state tournament, Alvin Jones finished 5th and ended his four-year wrestling career with a 54-9-1 record.

Hard work, determination, and fine spirit provided the Marion High School Wrestling team with its best season yet.

Captains for the season were Jerry Umbarger, Alvin Jones, and Russell Lowe.

Although baseball is not one of the better known sports at MSHS, it's always one of the winning sports. This year's defending Southwest District champs face a rebuilding season with the loss of six lettermen. However, six lettermen return to form the nucleus of a young team including pitchers, Mike Joy, David Archer, infielders Mike Barker, David Gentry, Duane Hayes and outfielder Johnny Russell.

In addition to the regularly scheduled games, Marion hosted their own invitational tournament for the first time with teams from Chilhowie, Saltville, Rich Valley, Holston, and Abingdon participating.

First Row: Darrell Perkins, Johnny Blevins, Billy Wygal, Steve Tilson, Tommy Thompson, Woody Linkous, David Atkins, Alvin Jones, Roger Pedigo, and Lloyd Lovett. Second Row: Duane Hayes, Mark Groseclose, Chappy Thomas, Jerry Fuller, Charles Brown, Richard Hutton, Ed Dean, Elmer Farmer, Dickie Pickle, Mike Smith, and Jerry Blevins. Third Row: Coach Weaver, Jerry Barr, Mal Brown, Bobby Hash, Martin Lee, Dennis Blankenbeckler, Jim Mink, David Weaver, Tommy Plummer, and Mike Shankman.

The track season began the 1967 season with a two-fold objective. One was to improve on last year's poor record and the other was to rebuild the track program at MSHS. With this in mind, Coach Earp and Coach Weaver eagerly began the season with hopes of placing high in the meets. They are counting on boys such as distance men Johnny Blevins, Wayne Barker, sprinters Alvin Jones, Richard Hutton, and vaulter Roger Pedigo. With a new track being built and the interest in the track picking up at MSHS, the track program should improve in future years.

Roger Pedigo clears the bar.

Alvin Jones soars through the air.

Golf

Left to Right: Joe Dyson, James Brant, Eddie Stump, Billy Dillworth, Greg Harvey, Kyle Collins, Allen Jones, Charles Kirby and Coach Harkins.

Coach Harkins had high hopes for his golf team with many young golfers. He faced a rebuilding year, though, since only three lettermen, Charles Kirby, Kyle Collins and Billy Dillworth, returned. The future looks bright for the team since most of the golfers were underclassmen.

Coach Harkins gives his golfers a putting lesson.

Charlie Kirby blasts out of the sandtrap.

Cheerleaders

Varsity Cheerleaders, Kneeling: Sara Hutchinson—Head; Virginia Forrest—Co-Head. Standing: Vickie Casas, Kay Hancock, Nancy Matthews, Betsy Smith—Alternate, Patty Shuler—Alternate, Betsy Lemmon, Lynn Graybeal, Francis Jones.

Sara Hutchinson, Virginia Forrest and Mr. Hurricane.

JV Cheerleaders get ready for action.

JV CHEERLEADERS, Left to right: Tina Nelson, Meg Byrd, Lee Graybeal, Beth Scott—Head, Lou Thompson, Cindy Sprinkle, Lacy Werth, Carol Tate.

“COME ALIVE”

THROUGH ADVERTISING

Established high in the heart of Virginia's Appalachian Mountains, the town of Marion has seen much change and growth since it was established March 4, 1835. At that time it was only a small village with unpaved streets, few houses, and fewer businesses.

By 1912, as is shown in the picture at the left, Marion had begun to "Come Alive". The streets were paved, Henry Ford's new motorized sensation was a common sight and numerous new business enterprises had been undertaken.

The year 1967 shows that Marion is definitely a part of the "Come Alive" generation. Now a thoroughly modern community, Marion's growth is reflected in its numerous businesses and industries.

Every day the same sweet, young girl that you are and I'm sure you'll always be restored with the best. Best of luck always in every thing you undertake.

SMYTH COUNTY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

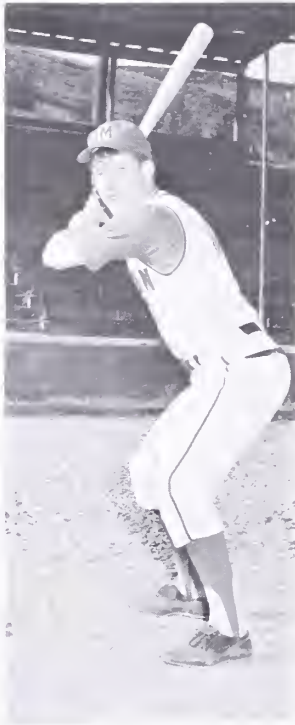

The new Smyth County Community Hospital will cost approximately $2,500,000. Through the efforts of the citizens of Marion, Smyth County, and the immediate vicinity, pledges totaling $955,000 have been made, while the Hill-Burton Funds have allotted $1,029,289. Appalachian funds have been allotted for $330,000.

With well-trained personnel and up-to-date equipment, the hospital will be fully prepared to serve its patients in this 115-bed facility.

Construction began in March, 1965, and, tentatively, Smyth County Community Hospital will be completed in the summer of 1967.

Finale

Today in this fast changing world, the students at MSHS learn to adjust to this changing pace. The "graduating generation" has been "Where the Action Was", danced their way through the "Hurricane A-Go-Go", "Poured It On" academically and in sports, and purchased from the advertisers. As in this picture there are crossroads, this is where the "graduating generation" is. Time has come for them to make the decisions that will in many ways make the future. MSHS has been the place where preparation for these decisions has taken place. The underclassmen will experience all this in the time to come, and will then look back, as the "graduating generation" does now, to the many fond memories spent within the walls of Marion Senior High School.

July,
Since every place
I like was taken, I'll just sign here and ruin this picture. This has really been a great year and it's really fun
being in class with a great person like you. Just by luck next year in Spanish I wish you had the happiness
on the wall in the coming years. (She's the happy one)
May God bless you,
Dianne

Gudy,
Bear never
having study hall
with you, and hope you're not mad because I talked to you a lot.
See next year
in study hall

Judy,
I'm really glad to have known you these past two years. I'm sure that you'll do a great job with the
Spanish club next year.
Be good & have fun!
(I know you will)
Love ya!

Judy!
Best of Everything to us all that I love
to pass with! May you and I have millions more success! Judy, you be good hope to see you this summer!
Love ya!

Judy,
 Sure I've been fun knowing you this far. I'd hope we'll get to know each other better in the near future (if a little please stay your sweet - just for smart self and you won't + can for a wrong. I leave come see me sometime - a live right next door to B eggs for live save 4 - because it's for comm
 but I do.

Most sincerely,
